Adult Life Group Lesson: Week #13 (October 27th – October 31st)

Title:

Text: Psalm 100:3kjv

Objective: To help believers recognize that all people—of every nation, culture, and background—belong to God, were created by Him, and are cared for by Him as His children.

Key Terms: Created – Identity - Shepherd

Important Takeaways From Psalm 100:3kjv

3 truths that show we are all God's children...

1.

2.

3.

Talk It Out

1. What does Psalm 100:3 teach us about our Creator and our identity?

2. How does belonging to God give us confidence in daily life?

3. Why do you think unity among believers matters to God?

4. What does it mean to you personally that God is your Shepherd?

Life App: This week, take time to thank God for being your Creator, your Confirming Father, and your Caring Shepherd. Ask Him to help you see others as His children too—each person a unique work of His hand. Remember: Our unity in God's family is greater than any difference that divides us.

Memory Verse:

Psalm 100:3kjv -Know ye that the Lord he is God: it is he that hath made us, and not we ourselves; we are his people, and the sheep of his pasture.
